ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS.

HAVAS' AGENCY

London 22nd.

Telegrams from Chinese Gordon have been received. The English General is greatly disgusted at the attitude of the British Government, and says that its inaction is the sole cause of the massacres already perpetrated, and of those the Soudan rebels may still perpetrate.

Berlin 22nd.

Five thousand carpenters are on strike here and in other cities of the Empire, demanding shorter hours and higher wages. A great number of works are completely stopped in consequence.

PRESS TELEGRAMS

Direct telegrams to the Rio papers say that the Times of 14th publishes the surrender of Khartoum and capture by the rebels of Chinese Gordon.

President Santos will return to-morrow from his estancia.

Quarantine on vessels from Brazil will cease on May 2st.

Italian barque bound for Plate, with wine and salt, wrecked 130 miles South of the Rio Grande bar.

All the papers comment very favourably on the last balance sheet of the National Bank.

Twenty three cases of arms have arrived for the Cordoba Government.

The steamers recently arrived have brought large consignments of sugar machinery for Tucuman.

Mendoza, 23rd.

Engineer Paulowski entertained Sarmiento at breakfast to-day.

Grand ball on Saturday next.

KHARTOUM.

If the Mahdi himself indited the telegrams that come to Buenos Ayres, about the Soudan and its wretched capital, these messages could not be more conflicting or less intelligible. A week ago we published the news that Khartoum had surrendered and Chinese Gordon was taken prisoner. Yesterday we had still fresher news, that the city is still besieged by the followers of the False Prophet—that a doomed band attempted a sortie, some 350, every man of whom perished—that the siege continues, but of Chinese Gordon there is not one word.

We shall not speculate upon the possible import of the next message, since, with Havas it is likely enough the news will be from the hills of Spain, or the sugar-farms of Madagascar, or any other out-of-the-way spot, rather than from that centre of sorrow, bloodshed and blunder—the Soudan. But, in the absence of a message, let us say that the probabilities are Gordon is still alive and his head has not been cut off to grace the top of a bamboo cane.

Chinese Gordon is one of the most extraordinary men of the present century. We have just finished reading his life, which was kindly lent us by a Manchester gentleman, and we rise from its perusal satisfied in our own mind that, dark and terrible and despairing as its chapters are about the unhappy human beings who are driven in droves for sale at the next market—suffering hardships, sorrows, privations and punishment that shock the soul—we must not lose faith in our race, our creed, and our principles, so long as such splendid characters as Gordon are to be found ready to lay down their lives in their support.

We shall not recommend the too general reading of Gordon's life, since the repulsive horrors of Soudanese life and manners are calculated to influence the female mind and even disturb its educated morality and settled principles; but we will advance one step and say that the Indians of our Pampa are gentlemen compared with the parents of our race that exist in the hills and valleys of the Soudan. The ants in a garden are not more numerous than the human beings that swarm in that detestable country; and even Gordon himself, with all his humanity, with all his strict Christian principles, was frequently obliged to doubt everything at the shocking human-race sights, horrors and depravities he witnessed in the country districts of the White Nile.

There is not to be found on the habitable globe another spot where human life is of less value than in the Soudan. To think that in the broad glare of the 19th century, with all our civilization and our progress, all our arts and sciences, and commerce and learning, and within a week's journey of Paris, there should exist human beings so wretched, so doomed, so depraved, as the slave troops of men, women and children that are driven in weekly to the market! It is to doubt our very existence. Yet such things are, such things exist to-day in this world of ours, and some of the best blood of our race is now being shed in torrents, not to redeem these people, but rather to perpetuate their enslaved existence. To our poor mind the blood of such a man as Gordon is worth the whole population of the Soudan. We know that there are many who admit that Herodotus was right, who accept the gorilla theory in its most humiliating and repulsive dogmas, who applaud to the echo every line that Darwin wrote, but they can go no farther. Khartoum is a blighting shame; and if the Arabs murder all our countrymen, and even drive the Christian back to the sea and pitch the Cross into the Mediterranean, it is in obedience to an under current that defies us all; it is the rude supremacy of an animalism that mocks our genius and sets us all to thinking on subjects that so far are not found in our books.—(Since writing the above Havas, as we surmised, reports Gordon still alive, but thoroughly disgusted with Downing Street.)

OUR COLONIES.

The National Treasury has collected this year from the Avellaneda colonists the very respectable sum of 9,600 National dollars, which, added to the amount previously refunded to the Government by the colonists, gives a total of 23,000 National dollars. It speaks well for this colony, that in so short a time they are able to pay back to the treasury so much on account of the advances made them when starting, and we hear that nearly all the Government colonies are equally prosperous.

Thus the money advanced by the National Government to start the poor man and his family has not been thrown away, and the advance, in every point of view, has proved a good one. With good method, and careful supervision, all the moneys expended by the Government on these colonies will be refunded. But new colonies need great care, aid and attention to succeed, and although, of course, the seasons have much to do with their success, we have it from a Swiss friend in Esperanza, that colonists, when starting, require the same care as children, and, no matter how good the season, if there is no one to look after them and show them how to work and help them along, they are sure to fail. The Avellaneda colony seems to have turned the corner, and the people there must be very well off, when they are able to pay back over £4,000 of the money spent by the Government in starting them.

In view of these favourable colonial facts, Congress this year may be a little more liberal towards a department which is the bone and sinew of the country. Within the four walls of our Immigration Department flows the life current that bears this country along, and whatever money is voted to help the immigrant is well spent.

With such men as Beck Bernard in Switzerland, and a free and liberal policy towards the emigrant by the National Government, we really see no reason why, in the Misiones and Chaco, we have not 100 such colonies as the Avellaneda, whose successful members are able in so short a time to refund the Government its advances.

The growth of colonies in the Province of Santa Fe is so great now and so remarkable that no Government aid is needed to start a colony in any part of that Province; all that is required is fair play by the Provincial Government towards the people, and no excessive taxation. But in the National territory and remote districts no colony can be started without Government protection and aid. The plough at certain stages needs help and protection, and we look forward, bright with hope, that the thirty-five Swiss families now going up to the Misiones will prove as great a success as the pioneer Swiss families brought out here twenty-eight years ago, by Mr. Castellanos, to found the great Santa Fe Colonies.

If some of the European Governments would adopt the system of the Argentine, and advance few dollars to help the poor man, possibly as with us the money would not be lost, and to Ghench, Esneh, and Edfou, and subsequently to return.

The Mississippi river at New Orleans is at present one inch higher than was ever before known. Scores of breaks have occurred in the levees throughout the course of the lower river, and the lowlands are consequently flooded, the river spreading into a sheet of water of from 50 to 100 miles in width. Almost everywhere below Cairo great distress prevails, and there is a general request for relief. The position of affairs at New Orleans is critical.

Our correspondent at Suakim, telegraphing last evening, says that military operations are at once to be resumed. To-morrow the entire force will probably move out to a point ten miles distant, with a view to march on Wednesday to Osman Digna's camp. Colonel Slade has reconnoitred to within two miles of Osman's camp, but saw no sign of life. From a conversation he has had with the Sheikh Morghani, our Correspondent concludes that the pacification of the country and the opening of the Berber route for the garrison and fugitives from Khartoum are practically as far away now as they were before the battle of Teb.

The Emperor William's birthday was celebrated throughout Germany on Saturday as a national festival. Berlin was elaborately decorated, and the front of the Palace was filled by a dense crowd, whose enthusiastic greetings the Emperor had frequently to acknowledge from a window. His rooms were converted into a flower garden by the many offerings which were sent to him.

The final meeting of the General Committee of the Fisheries Exhibition was held on Saturday, the Prince of Wales in the chair. The financial statement showed that the balance of assets over liabilities was fifteen thousand two hundred and forty-three pounds. On the motion of the chairman it was resolved to invest ten thousand pounds, the proceeds to be applied to the assistance of the families of sea fishermen who are lost when in the pursuit of their calling; and to devote three thousand pounds to the formation of a Fisheries Society for the collection and diffusion of information relative to fisheries.

A large number of Conservatives assembled at the Mansion House on Saturday evening, at a dinner which the Lord Mayor gave, the Marquess of Salisbury being the principal guest.

Mr. Cowen, M.P., speaking in the City on Saturday night, vindicated the House of Commons from the censure which he said was unreasonably cast upon it, and pointed to the legislation which had been carried, and to the enormous amount of detailed labour gone through by working members of Parliament as an answer to such criticisms.

The Chairman and some of the officials of the Metropolitan Board of Works on Saturday opened the new Gray's-inn-road, a fine broad thoroughfare, to be planted with trees, which has taken the place of the wretched Gray's-inn-lane. Sir J. M'Garel-Hogg mentioned that there is a Bill in Parliament to enable the Board to extend this splendid roadway. At a subsequent luncheon he pointed out the great difficulty of piloting such Bills through the Legislature, but expressed a hope that the Board would soon be able to commence several important streets sixty feet wide.

Some further particulars are published respecting the intended march of Volunteers to Portsmouth at Easter, and the operations which have been arranged for them to carry out.

A North Woolwich train, belonging to the Great Eastern Railway Company, on Saturday afternoon ran into the end of a Southend train at Stepney station. Several carriages were thrown off the line and a number of passengers complained of injuries.

An inquiry was held on Saturday, at Bristol Lunatic Asylum, as to the sanity of Mr. William Cooke Doone, a farmer, who had been placed there for threatening to shoot the Prince of Wales. In spite of Mr. Doone's protests, the Master in Lunacy stated that he should report to the Home Secretary that the patient was of unsound mind.

Mrs Weldon's action for libel against the Daily Chronicle was continued on Saturday in the Queen's Bench Division. In addressing the jury for the defence, Mr. Hopwood observed that Mrs Weldon had allowed her judgment to be overturned by an overwhelming desire for admiration. The case will be resumed to-day.

To the Royal Free Hospital and other London charities were bequeathed sums amounting to sixty-four thousand pounds under the will, made in 1881, of Major-General Thomas Alfred Longcroft. Two years later, when an invalid, the General made a fresh will diverting the money from the charities to his relatives. The latter was disputed in the Probate Court on Saturday; but after some evidence had been given, counsel for the institutions represented withdrew their opposition to the latter will, for which the Court thereupon pronounced.

THE CAMPAIGN IN THE SOUDAN.

Suakim, March 24th.

The Berber road is to some extent open. A heliogram just received from Handoub speaks of a caravan of forty camels from Berber having arrived there unmolested all the way through.

Osman's followers are still deserting him. A ride of the 10th Hussars, yesterday, covering a great extent of ground, produced a marked effect upon the natives.

Colonel Slade, oft he Intelligence Department, who is starting this morning with six men along the direct route between Tamanieb and Sinkat, will reconnoitre Osman's supposed position.

Colonel Ashburham, of the Royal Rifles, is appointed Governor of Suakim, vice Admiral Hewett, shortly proceeding to Abyssinia.

Notwithstanding the otherwise favourable aspect of affairs in these regions, a conversation I have just had with the Sheikh Morghani tends to show that the hoped-for pacification of the country and the opening of the Berber route for the garrison and fugitives from Khartoum are practically as far away now as they were before the battle of Teb.

The Sheikh tells me that all the principal Sheikhs of the great Hadendowa tribe continue their adherence to Osman Digna. They will probably not again follow him in battle against the English, but they refuse point blank to tender their submission to us, and will remain indefinitely in so-called rebellion.

Even since the last battle not one important hostile Sheikh has answered Morghani's letters in a friendly spirit, and they all refuse to come in.

I asked the Sheikh whether 500 Egyptian troops could now march in safety from Berber to Suakim. He said it was quite impossible to answer that question. Such a force of Englishmen might do it, but the same number of Egyptians would probably be attacked. Unless we are prepared to take in hand the definite conquest of the country, even Morghani says that all we can do now is to make raids all over the country, one of which, on a large scale, is now contemplated, and capture the cattle, and even the women. That might tend to drive the population away from this neighbourhood.

Before the battle of Teb people here said that if we beat the Arabs once the rebellion would collapse. Again, before Tamanieb, they were sure that if we dispersed Osman's following the country would be at once pacified. Now they ask us to undertake further operations.

One good result of the late battle is that the Arabs will not now attempt any invasion of Lower Egypt against the English; but for any restoration of authority in Eastern Soudan all operations have begun too late. Baker Pacha's defeat sealed the fate of the country.

Unless we intend to garrison the Berber road with British troops, it seems useless to keep an entire army here any longer. For the eventual garrison of this place it would be better to raise a fresh regiment with a troop of local horse, and make the place resemble Aden.

For Europeans Suakim is a better place than Aden. It is not so hot, and there is plenty of game in the neighbourhood.

After a while the tribes, although refusing our direct rule, would, like those in Arabia, become friendly.

With Suakim in our hands, and Massowah and Abyssinia under our control, the slave trade of the Red Sea receives a severe blow.

The caravan of which my former telegram spoke is now here, and consists entirely of pilgrims. They say that the Berber route is not secure enough for the despatch of mercantile caravans, but they saw nothing on their road except a few tribesmen tending sheep.

GERMANY.

THE EMPEROR'S BIRTHDAY.

The Emperor's birthday was celebrated yesterday in Berlin and throughout the country as a true national festival. The rejoicings were inaugurated by a "chorale," played by the Horse Guards trumpeters, from the Castle dome at six a.m., and the whole town was decked with flags from an early hour, the British standard floating over the Crown Prince's Palace.

The morning was raw and dull, but about noon the sun burst out, and the rest of the day was fine. The street decorations were, if possible, more elaborate than in former years, Unter den Linden and the neighbouring streets being most richly adorned. The monument of Frederick the Great formed, as usual, the centre of the decorations, Baron Bleichroeder, the British Consul-General, having absolutely covered it with a magnificent offering of rare flowers and evergreens. On the side facing the Palace was an immense bouquet bearing the Imperial monogram.

The street in front of the Palace was completely blocked, and the aged Emperor repeatedly made his appearance at the historic corner window to acknowledge the enthusiastic greeting of the crowd. Throughout the day His Majesty displayed a freshness and vivacity almost incredible considering his advanced age. At an early hour, in accordance with his usual custom, he received the congratulations of all his servants and officials. About nine he proceeded to the Empress's apartments, where he received the congratulations of Her Majesty and the Grand Duchess of Baden, the Empress presenting him with a costly casket in the German renaissance style.

The Emperor's rooms were converted into a veritable flower-garden, by the magnificent floral offerings which poured in from all sides. Boxes and parcels arrived throughout the day, together with congratulatory letters and telegrams from all the European Monarchs. Prince Bismarck, who was loudly cheered by the crowd, arrived at half-past eleven to give his congratulations as head of the Ministry.

All day the stream of visitors continued, amongst them being the various Princes and Princesses, the Ambassadors, the members of the Bundesrath and the Presidents of the Reichstag and Landtag.

According to the Post, the Emperor, in his conversation with the latter officials, expressed his dissatisfaction with the course taken by the discussion of the Socialist Law, impressively reminding them that the present superficial appearance of calmness was not to be mistaken for permanent order.

In the evening the Crown Prince and Crown Princess gave a grand dinner in honour of the day. Amongst the guests were the Emperor and Empress, and all the Royal and non-Royal Princes and Princesses at present in Berlin, together with the entire Diplomatic Corps, including Mr. Sargent, the United States Minister. Lord Ampthill, as doyen, proposed the Emperor's health.

The celebration was wound up with a soirée and reception in the White Saloon of the Royal Palace, for which eight hundred and fifty invitations were issued, a concert and tableaux vivants arranged by the Empress forming part of the entertainment.

The festivals of the Berlin Court are proverbial for their pomp and luxury, but I never remember seeing such a display as that of yesterday. All the reigning German Princes, with the exception of the invalid King of Wurtemberg and the Grand Duke of Sewerin and the hermit King of Bavaria were present, and the whole proceedings were most successful.

At the soiree the august assembly were ushered in by the King of Saxony leading in the Crown Princess, the Emperor following with the Grand Duchess of Weimar. Then came the Crown Prince with the Hereditary Grand Duchess of Strelitz, the Grand Duke of Weimar with the Grand Duchess of Baden, and so forth in precedence. The chief attraction of the evening was undoubtedly the young Prince Henry, who had just returned from his ship, and whose handsome face and striking, manly appearance created a great impression. Prince Orloff, the new Russian Ambassador, was also the object of much attention, and was introduced to the diplomatic and aristocratic personages present by his predecessor, M. Saburoff. In the evening the whole town was illuminated, and the festivities were kept up till a late hour.

His Majesty celebrated the occasion by the bestowal of high Orders on several of his Ministers. Baron Suckendorff, Commander of the corvette Olga, has been appointed one of His Majesty's Aides-de-Camp, this being the first occasion on which a naval officer received this distinction. The Olga is the vessel upon which Prince Henry served. His Majesty has further issued an order highly recognizing the exemplary conduct of the captain and the crew of the corvette while Prince Henry was on board.

The Castle of Brühl, near Bonn, is being prepared for the reception of the Emperor, who will stay there for three days during the next Autumn Manœuvres.

LATEST FROM LIMERICK.

March, 25th.

Mr. Parnell has written expressing regret at his inability to be present at the Limerick demonstration on Easter Monday, when the freedom of the city, recently voted by a Majority of the Corporation, is to be presented to Messrs. Gray, M.P., Dawson, M.P. and Davitt. Mr. Parnell says:—"There are many reasons why I should wish to visit the city which was the scene of one of our most recent and signal electoral triumphs, and where resistance to unjust taxation for extra police has been so successfully commenced and strongly maintained; but on looking over the list of my engagements for Easter, I find, with the greatest regret, that it would be impossible for me to be with you on Easter Monday, with due regard to another public engagement previously entered into at Drogheda for the following day."

Some time since Mr. Daniel J. Hishon, a member of the Council of the National League, was evicted from his two farms at Shanagolden, county Limerick, for non-payment of rent. The landlord, Mr. Cantillow, has had the farms vacant since the eviction took place, and, failing to procure men in the neighbourhood to take charge of the holdings, he has been supplied with bailiffs by the Property Defence Association for the purpose. The authorities have within the past few days established a police protection post on the farms, to protect the bailiffs in question.

Within the past few days, a number of detective officers from Limerick and other centres in the south of Ireland have been summoned to London by the Scotland-yard authorities. The officers have since left for England, their visit to the Metropolis being in connection with the recent dynamite outrages in London.

A woman named Waters, said to be a native of London, was found lying on one of the public roads near Limerick by some men who were passing by at the time. There was a large incised wound across her forehead, and she was totally unconscious, in which condition she still continues in hospital, wither she was removed. Information has since been conveyed to the police that the woman was attacked and beaten by a number of men, for whom the police are seeking.

A National League meeting was held to-day at Manister, county Limerick, the Rev. John Conway, C.C., presiding. There was a large attendance of farmers from the district. The meeting was held in the chapel yard. On the motion of Mr. Patrick O'Grady, seconded by Mr. John M'Carthy, the following resolution was agreed to, among others:—"That Mr. Synan, the junior M.P., for this country, by his action as a landlord, in re-introducing the oft-announced agrarian evils of land-grabbing into his own property in this parish, has forfeited all claim to speak with the voice of the people of this patriotic constituency in the House of Commons, and that in order to make him feel the effects of our indignation at his treatment of a helpless Protestant farmer in the midst of a Catholic population, we hereby request our honorary secretary to prepare a brief statement of our cause of complaint against him, and to send copies to all the branches of the Irish National League in the country, as well as a copy to the leader of the Irish Parliamentary Party for his own enlightenment, and that of his followers, as to the real character of the junior M.P. for the county Limerick."

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

March, 15th

The prison at Clairvaux is the central establishment for the prisoners of the surrounding thirteen departments. It occupies the famous monastery founded by St. Bernard in 1115, and which became the parent establishment of the Cistercians, a branch of the Benedictines; the latter was the most powerful order of monks that ever existed; it reckoned 40 Popes, 200 Cardinals, 4 Emperors, 12 Empresses, 46 Kings, 41 Queens, and 3,600 Saints, not including the episcopal bench. St. Bernard, at the age of 24, disgusted with the world, and accompanied by a few sympathisers, including a prince and three nobles, arrived in a valley called "Absinthe," not after the plant, which never grew there, but from the "bitterness" of the neighbourhood, a veritable Valley of the Shadow of Death. It was a vast natural forest of firs, through which light never entered, and the ground was a morass. Having made some openings, the Pilgrim Fathers named the place Claire Vallée (Clair-vaux) or, "Clear View."

The monks had not even locusts and wild honey; their food at first consisted of ash tree leaves boiled in salted water. But they worked and prayed; so that in time, their order included 800 monks; the establishment was a veritable little state within a state: its enclosing walls extended to a mile and a quarter in circumference; the order owned 53 villages, and its revenue was estimated at one time at over half a million sterling annually. But the Benedictines, who kept aloof from politics, were artizans and labourers. They produced all the articles the monastery required, and the surplus was disposed of at the surrounding fairs. They had saw-mills worked by water-power, factories, farms, gardens, oil and woollen mills, tan and dye works, forges, etc. The Abbey contained within itself several churches; its wine cellar was famous and exists in its perfect vastness to-day; its tun was only second to that of Heidleberg, and had a capacity of 5,500 gallons—the former contained 42,000 gallons—where the wine was kept ten years.

No woman, not even the Queen of France, was allowed to enter the monastery. Till the fourteenth century the law of silence was strictly followed; the greatest severities were observed at ceremonies; organs, statues, ornamental glass and pavement were discarded. The monks made and repaired their own clothes, and cooked their own food; only the sick were allowed meat. The bread consisted of millet, barley and vetches; they wore neither shoes nor shirts, but woollen blouses, and slept in their clothes, on straw. The refectory could accommodate 2000 persons, and down the middle ran a stream of water—which is to-day the prison wash-house.

When the Revolution arrived the monastery contained only 28 monks; the establishment was purchased for a glass factory; in 1808, the State purchased it for an Alms-house: Louis XVIII. converted it into a prison, and it now contains 1,700 male and 500 female prisoners. Similar to the monastery of the olden time, the prison supplies its own wants: it is a series of trades' unions; it manufactures silk, woollen and cotton goods, which are esteemed. Its gloves are famous. Like Blanqui, Prince Kropotkine has all he wants—save liberty.

The French are disappointed about Bacnini; the enemy has again escaped as at Sontay, so all has to be recommenced, with China still officially in the background. This means a long and dreary 'little war,' with the unknown, if China brings torrents of soldiers to the rescue. France cannot support a steady drain on her treasury. The French would like to have had a success like the English over Osman-Digma. The latter must by this regret having left his ordinary calling of "pedlar," to embark in the False Prophet line of business.

The prospect of England at last declaring her Protectorate over Egypt, preparatory to its becoming "definite," like that of France at Tunis and Tonkin, is accepted as the practical consequence of General Graham's victories.

Respecting M. de Lesseps's majority of 92, at the general meeting of the Suez Canal shareholders, it is a Cadmean victory. It has destroyed the belief that he was omnipotent with that body. After cracking up the Chauvinistic element—everything is fair in love and war, in every imaginable form, to have to fight for his life as he did, was an unexpected result. His prestige is hit.

Mr. Grévy's second and last ball, on Thursday night last, was exceedingly brilliant. Compared with the first, it was less crowded, and comparatively cool. There were oases of fresh air and nooks around shrubs and flowers that formed so many havens of rest. The refreshments and supper were on a princely scale, and must torment those backbiters who accuse the President of excessive frugality. Mr. Grévy's private charities are very extensive, and bestowed on the wise principle of not letting the left hand know what the right hand doeth. Not many English or American young ladies were present; they are ever the life and soul of the dancing-salon. Pink tulles and satins were the favourite dress materials; flowers, feathers and diamonds the patronised ornaments. I left the ball at two in the morning, with friends, and the weather was so like the night of a leafy month in June that the ladies ordered the carriages to follow, and we did a good part of the Champs Elysées on foot, home.

A printer's devil has just hanged himself in a police cell: some lucky press writer has had thus a few hours' unexpected repose.

An ex-Carlist Colonel has been condemned to prison for obtaining an heiress under false pretences. He changed his baptismal certificate to make himself younger, and forged a letter from his hidalgo parents approving of his marriage.

"Throwing an old slipper" is not always lucky. A prisoner in the dock so employed his at the head of a witness, to cure him of hard swearing, and was sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

Tavern-keeper to a client—"I will give you no more drink; you are as full as a sponge." "Yes, I have soaked all the water in your wine."

EDITOR'S TABLE

The mail bags for the Senegal close to-day at the General Post Office at 1 p.m. sharp.

The Bahia Blanca Inauguration cards were given round yesterday, and with them neat programmes, giving the itinerary which, as well as we can recollect, runs so:—

Friday 25th—Breakfast, beefsteaks, and mutton chops, at La Gama. Lunch at Curumalan, "spoil five" in the afternoon, and split sodas in the cars.

Dinner at 6.30 p.m. on the mole at Bahia Blanca, billiards in the evening, oysters "ad libitum" and nightcaps, (whiskey punch).

Saturday 26th—Coffee, "mate" and porridge in the morning. Banquet at noon; visit in afternoon to British Hermit, Indians and Chinas in suburbs, and leave by night train; sleep in cars all night, "mate amargo" at dawn, and unlimited Loo before breakfast.

Sunday 27th—Breakfast and Truco at Las Flores, Eno's Fruit Salt Pyrite waters at Chascomus or Ranchos; pure brandy at station, arriving at Constitucion, all done up.

Conferences are the order of the day. Mr Alejo Peyret will give one to-morrow night, free, gratis and for nothing, in the National College, his theme to be "The Religious, Political and Economical Institutions of Ancient and Modern Nations."

The letters from Europe by the La Plata were not delivered till 4 p.m. yesterday. What a model P. O. is that of the city of Good Airs!

The distribution of quintas and chacras at the La Plata began yesterday. The public officials will be served first, and then the poor public.

In reporting yesterday that several Deputies and high civil functionaries had to sleep in the open camp on Monday night, owing to the engine of the train in which they were returning from La Plata being attacked with a bad cough in the middle of the journey, we omitted to say that the asthmatic locomotive belonged to the Southern line, not to the Ensenada line. The Deputies passed a terrible night, and, after six hours delay, had given themselves up for lost in the wilderness, when, suddenly, the wheezy engine gave a tremendous whistle and resumed its way to town with a spurt like Weston's at the end of his 500 miles walk, barely giving time for those passengers who were walking up and down the line, to keep their toes warm, to scramble into the carriages.

The public want very badly to know what Havas means by his contradictory telegrams. Last week he told us that Khartoum had surrendered; and yesterday that it was still closely invested. Either news must be 'inexacta.' The public is fast losing confidence in Havas.

We give in another column the news by the R.M.S. La Plata, and beg to thank the purser for his Times of 26th March. The Britannia, however, brings later news. The telegrams from Montevideo say that Mr. Bell's Bill to reduce local taxation passed the House of Commons on the 28th ult. by a majority of 11 votes and the Cabinet resigned 'en masse'!! (Some mistake here we calculate). A terrific fight lasting 24 hours took place in Cincinnati between the mob and the police; 150 killed and 1000 wounded. Here's another bit of queer news that Havas has not even whispered: "Horrible rout of the English North of the Berber cataracts. General Graham's force cut to pieces 25 per cent of his men died from sunstroke." (We'll bet a new hat that this news was invented in Paris). The latest news from the Soudan is that the insurrection is growing and the Mahdi has 80,000 men in the field. More queer news "Gordon has gone as a prisoner to Europe"!!! Oh! ye gods.

The latest telegrams from Bahia say that part of the cargo of the steamer Reliance has been saved.

Many Southern estancieros say there has been some exaggeration in reference to the recent floods. About Las Flores no harm was done, and few lambs were lost. The camps are now beginning to look superb.

One of the most fashionable gatherings seen for some time assembled at St. John's Church yesterday, and afterwards at the house of the bride's father, on the occasion of the marriage of Mr. Henry Maynard Wells and Miss Adela Woodgate, eldest daughter of Mr. C. F. Woodgate. The bride was magnificently attired in Ottoman silk and Brussels lace, and looked radiantly beautiful. The strength of the attendance can be gathered from the fact that there were over 70 carriages in waiting.

Mr Godfredo is now the great sensation at the Politeama. His performances on the bar are so astounding that he was recalled six times on Tuesday night.

Don Nicolas Anchorena was worse yesterday, and all but dispaired off. He had a severe stroke of apoplexy on Monday evening, at Belgrano.

Yesterday, a young German, named Arthur Klone, a clerk in Mullman and Co.'s house, blew his brains out. He was found dead on his bed by a fellow clerk. The unfortunate man, to make assurance doubly sure, took a dose of arsenic before using the pistol.

The ghosts of Shakespeare and Cervantes will haunt the editor of the Diario for the rest of his life for allowing such caricatures of the two poets as appeared in his issue of yesterday. Shakespeare was bad enough, but old Mrs. Cervantes would not know her own son as he appears in the Diario.

Dear Sirs,

I have much pleasure in stating that I cured all my flocks this season with the "Golden Leaf Extract" and found the result highly satisfactory, and in future do not intend to use any other dip.

After first using the "Golden Leaf," I found it such a perfect cure for Scab that I recommended it to several of my neighbours who have all proved it equally good.

Yours truly
W. R. GRANT.

Guaranteed always the same

Because we contract year by year for our exclusive account the produce of the same gardens in CHINA.

For many years the principal dealers both in town and camp, have sold none but the LA PATRIA brand, an eloquent proof of the satisfaction it gives to their customers. The annoyance and inconvenience which they formally suffered, when they bought other teas (sometimes of good quality and sometimes totally useless) is thus done away with.

A package of "PATRIA" Tea although it is sold for 48 lbs contains 50 lbs. net of tea.

Protection against Fraud

See that the box has not been opened. If the lead has been cut it is an almost certain proof that it does not contain the genuine article. Those who fill with inferior tea the empty boxes bearing our brands, generally do it at the bottom, leaving the lid and top lead intact, so as the more readily to deceive purchasers.

Ask for PATRIA tea and see that you get the genuine article.

IN ALL LUNG AND THROAT DISEASES (excepting Inflammation), the respiratory organs are debilitated and weakened, and an invigorating tonic is a necessity before a cure can be effected. In the Pectoral of Anacahuita there is concentrated a wonderful amount of invigorating power, which, being diffusive in its nature, is carried by the blood and fluids into direct contact with the affected parts, toning and strengthening them and the flaccid membranes to such a degree as to enable them to throw off the diseased condition and reassume their natural functions. By using one spoonful of Lanman & Kemp's Pure Cod Liver Oil, mixed with two of the Pectoral of Anacahuita, the time required to effect a cure will be considerably shortened.

Cedulas A	100¼
Cedulas E	89½
Cedulas F	85½
National Bank Shares....	139½

The old anomalies of the stock market were evidenced to-day by a drop in shares in the face of the glorious news confirming the successful negotiation of the loan, which has been taken up firm at 84 o/o by a Paris and Frankfurt Bank and the house of Morgan in London, making allowance for commission, &c., the loan will stand the Government at 81½, a creditable quotation for a 5 o/o loan. The importance of this great news is dawning on the market and will give a more buoyant feeling to everything on the Bolsa and in the Government House; there is nevertheless a lingering misgiving at the ring, and many assert that the negotiation is merely "ad referendum" with the representative of the above Syndicate in this market. This fact may account for the cold shoulder opposed to the news and the heavy state of Cedulas and shares The launching and negotiation of loans have been announced and contracted so often since the beginning of the year that there is a constant latent suspicion entertained with regard to all these negotiations, especially if they bear "ad referendum" features. The effect of the news will only be felt when a cablegram announces the launching of this large amount on the London market. Some people laugh at the very idea of any German bank entering into the negotiation, and indeed the mention of the Frankfurt Bank is a welcome novelty and may pave the way to financial introductions in Berlin and other German money markets. All those whose operations and interests are more or less favored by the confirmation of the success of the loan are in the best spirits, and there is no denying that it will have a potent effect on the market.

The share market, nevertheless, ruled despondent this morning, and it appears that operators are already beginning to settle their month's liquidation. The firm appearance of the stock and last night's buoyant rise made place for a most indifferent market this morning. Opera ions opened at 139½, fell ¼, and closed somewhat firmer at 139½; about 1,200 shares were sold at these rates for the end of the month. Eight hundred were sold for the end of May; operations opened at 141½, fell to 140½, and closed at 141.

Operators find some difficulty in passing over operations and 1½ to 2$ are paid by speculators in need of cover. There is, nevertheless, plenty of money offering on shares, and operations are passed with much facility at 130 and 125; at higher rates these operations are onerous.

Certificates are very firm, and there is a strong rising tendency in the market. Some parties are selling out Cedulas to buy the Scrip, and when these operators enter the market the effect will be immediately felt; there were buyers to-day at $46.

The following were the sales at the ring during official hours:—
Cedulas—
For cash A 3,600 at 100½
For cash E 24,000 at 89½
For April 30th E 10,000 at 89½
For cash F 5,700 at 85½-¾-½
For April 30th F 10,000 at 85½
Sales, 33,300
National Bank Shares—
For April 30th 1,200 at 139½-¾-¾-½
For May 31st 800 at 141½-141-140¾-141
Sales, 2,000

Cedulas looked heavy to-day and little business was transacted. A few thousand A changed hands at 100¼, and 24,000 E at 89½. Ten thousand E were sold for the end of the month at 89½ also. A few thousand F were sold for cash at 85¾-½; ten thousand were sold for the end of the month at 85¾. The market closed with a weak feeling in Series E.

It is rumoured that as soon as Congress opens the new National Mortgage Bank scheme will come to the front. The Government intends to push the matter through with energy. This will be a new departure in the market, and the matter is already freely spoken of. The bears show much interest in the question.

There was a better feeling in the exchange market to-day, owing to the loan news, but rates showed no change this morning. Landmen attach more importance to the success of the loan than share, Cedula or exchange men; the land business is very dull at present, but prices continue firm, and there are no symptoms of holders letting go.

Mr. Arezz, of the well-known firm of Aretz, Lorenzen & Co., took leave of his friends to-day. He leaves on business in the General Werder and will return to the Plate soon.

M. Agustin Grau, travelling for the first time in the Plate, and partner of the leading Tourning firm of A. Grau & Co. took leave of his many friends on 'Change, he sails to-morrow in the French Mail steamer for Europe having seen much of the country during the short visit to the Plate. He made a tour of the camps of Buenos Aires, visited Tandil, Azul, Juarez, Dolores, Ayacucho and various other rich Buenos Aircan districts; he stopped for a few days at the magnificent Carril estancia, Lobos, went to Rosario, Entre Rios, visiting Concordia and Salto in the Banda Oriental and takes with him the most pleasurable impressions of the country. With the business movement in this City he is greatly struck and has had interviews with all our bankers Messrs Todd, Carabassa, Pollinini & Co. We attach much importance to this gentleman's visit to the Plate, he is so much pleased with the country that we think it will lead to other principals leaving France and coming out to the Plate. Mr Grau's visit will we have no doubt also serve to extend our at present very growing relations with France.

Three millions francs in exchange passed to-day at most reserved rates, the National Bank is drawing on London at 47½, and on Paris at 5 francs, some of the leading German export houses offered to draw to-day at 5 francs, but the bills were not passed. The Nat. Bank drew £70,000 stg. and 500,000 francs.

Mr. J. Cleminson, C. E. of London, is expected out in the Trent, sailed 9th April; Mr. C. is connected with the Transandine Railway, and although for the last 20 years in relations with this country, and with capital invested out here, this is his first visit to the Plate; we shall give him a warm welcome when he arrives.

At afterhours 1300 National Bank Certificates were bought at 47, which is 55½ per cent premium; buyers are offering, 48 for May and 58 for June. There is no stock in the market to rival "Certificados."

Discount brokers report a large business done to-day. Government bills done freely at 8 per cent., which shows improvement. Money rules abundant and easy for trade purposes, but for Bolsa loans there was a hunt up to-day in the market and higher rates are paid. The National Bank discounted 300,000 pats., Provincial Bank 250,000 pats.

During afterhours it was definitely known that the Thirty Million Loan had been taken up firm. The share market continued to rule weak, and a heavy feeling was prevalent during the evening. About 1,000 shares were sold for the end of the month at 139½-⅝-½; the market closed at 139½ for the end of the month and 139¾ for May, between buyers and sellers. The weak state of the market shews that pressure is being exercised from certain quarters, and difficulties are becoming more apparent in passing over operations. There was a sudden jump in the Scrip, owing to the appearance of new buyers in the market. Cedulas ruled heavy in the evening; a small business only was effected; the market closing at 89¾ sellers of Series E for the end of the end of the month, and at 85½ for Series F.

Freights continue unaltered at the usual low rates; bales are plentiful and much produce is offering in the market. The arrivals in the markets are steady, but there is a standstill in wool, owing to the unfavorable news from Antwerp and wool districts of the Continent.

From the Plaza Once de Setiembre we have the following:—
60 waggons arrived with produce.
The arrivals were:—
800 @ of wool
1,219 bags of wheat
850 bags of maize

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Our enterprising neighbour, Mr. Tom Sheil, suggests to us that it would be conducive to the gastronomical enjoyment of many of our readers and his customers to call attention to his advertisement in another column. We do so with pleasure, as we honestly believe that no hams, jams, or bacon in the country can beat those he has just imported, and which he is selling just as fast as he can unpack them. He telegraphed to Belfast yesterday to treble the consignment at once. This looks like business. Mr. Sheil's customers never cry "jam (or ham) satis."

The papers by the mail say that the Jersey Lily is making a large fortune. A London colleague says:—

"Mrs. Langtry's season this year in America has been successful beyond expectation, and she has been absolutely coining money. She returns to England in July, to play for four months in the provinces, after which she will probably return once more to the United States."

What luck! A sheepfarmer on a small scale came to town last week, on his way to Europe for a pleasure trip. While in town, waiting for the steamer, he bought a Lottery ticket, and lo and behold! he drew 20,000 pats. His trip to Europe will probably assume more luxurious proportions owing to this windfall.

The opening of Congress this year will be attended with more than usual ceremony. All the troops in town, down to the smallest drummer boy, will be paraded on the occasion,

French newspapers are great hands at discovering something new about "John Bull et son Isle" The Republique Francaise says that the real cause of Mr. Gladstone being so slow about sending British soldiers to the Soudan is that he knew what nobody else did, viz, that the British army has terribly degenerated!! This is sad news. The battles of Teb and Tamai look so like it too? In spite of the degeneracy of our soldiers, they make short work, at odds of ten to one against them, of the bravest savages in the world; whereas our French neighbours seem to have as much as they can do to beat the cowardly Chinese and wretched Hovas, even at evens.

An exchange says:—"Charles Dickens once received a check for £1,000 from Holloway, the pill-man, which was placed at the author's disposal on condition that one line of complimentary reference to Holloway's cures should appear in the book which Dickens was then publishing in monthly numbers. Dickens sent the check back by the messenger who brought it, without any answer at all."

The Prensa gives a doleful picture of the life of the Provincial clerks in La Plata. Those who enjoy travelling use the free train every day, and sleep in town; others club together and sleep on stretchers in a sheebang, paying 500 m/c per month for board and lodging (?). The best mess in the place is that started by the Chief of Police, Sr. Calderon. There are thirty mouths, at $250 m/c per month. The table is made of old boards supported on barrels; no cloth, but the "prog" is very fair, and the policemen make capital waiters. The Minister of Government dined with them the other day and enjoyed himself greatly. For the moment the whole thing is a pleasant change from the high-strung luxury of Buenos Ayres; but the novelty won't last long, even among the young and unmarried fry. And then? The question now is, Who is to be appointed to the post of Federal Judge in La Plata?

The Justices of Peace in our country parts very often are not as bad as they are painted, and sometimes a little better. A short time ago the Juez de Paz of Bolivar was accused of obstructing the valuator in his duties, but it turns out on investigation that the sole reason for the valuator's complaint was a request by the J. P. to let the matter stand over for a few days, as he had pressing business on hand. Sr. Dibur has therefore determined only to request his worship to assist the functionary as far as possible.

Todo el mundo conoce ya la citada seccion por ser una de las mejores por sus ricos y abundantes pastos y buenos aguadas, y la prueba es que hoy dia es la mas poblada de todas las secciones, siendo los principales pobladores los Sres. Antonio Cambaceres. Newton, Tornquist, Jaime Cibils, Pedro Saubidet, Drysdale y muchos otros cuya lista seria larga á detallar.

Para los que duden del valor de las tierras, les aconsejamos que lean los diarios de Nueva Zelandia (Auckland) y Australia, donde campos como estos se venden á 5 patacones el acre, que equivalen a 34000 $f treinta y cuatro mil patacones la legua cuadrada, y podran ver que los campos se venden alli hasta 13½ millones la legua.

Ademas les recordamos las ultimas ventas de la Oficina de Tierras de lo Provincia donde se han vendido campos en peores condiciones y distante 130 leguas de un puerto, a 54000 $ legua.

No queremos insistir en mayores demostraciones sobre el porvenir de las tierras de este pais: cada uno debe saber lo que hace.

La venta de estas 10,000 hectareas es sin base y por lo que dén, y las condiciones ventajosas para el pago.
